Hello Folks:

Some of you who have attended daily Masses at which I preside have asked me for the text of the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) in Latin:

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, Miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi Miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi Dona nobis pacem.

A couple of pronunciation tips are in order:
The gn in Agnus is pronounced "ny":
(Think "lasagna.")

The c in pacem is pronounced "ch."
(Think "Al Pacino.")

Looking forward to singing it with you all at Daily Mass!

God Bless!

Fr. Seán

Wanted: Your Photos!

In preparation for the 2009 Centennial Celebration of Holy Name Parish, we are putting together a parish history book. Whether your family has been part of Holy Name for 100 years or has just joined, you are part of our history. More than anything, it is the people that make the Church. If you have photos from any chapter of Holy Name's history, we would love to include them: wedding photos, 1st Communion, Holy Name School functions, etc. If you can, please label your photos with the approximate year, event, and people included (even partial information is a help!). If you include your name and address, the photos will be returned to you. Photos can be sent to the rectory c/o Patrice MacArthur or digital files may be sent to pfmacarthur@comcast.net. Thank you for your help with this project.

COOKBOOK UPDATE!!

The Holy Name Parish Centennial Cookbook has now gone to press and will be available shortly!

Cookbooks are great gifts and wonderful Christmas Presents. They are a multi-purpose gift too – for you, for an Anniversary for a birthday ... one size fits all!

We'll keep you updated on the progress!

Are you looking for a new ministry?

Would you consider being one of our Weekend Mass Greeters? It's easy ... just arrive about a half hour before Mass and welcome parishioners and visitors to our parish. If you're not sure, why not plan to attend our 4:30 Mass – our Greeting Ministry Coordinators, Kit and Trudy Devlin, are there and would love to meet you and talk to you about this very important ministry.
